

Live Wellington

FEBRUARY 15, 2012

VOL. 1 NO. 15

SUNSENTINEL.COM/WELLINGTON

Cornelia wants you to be her 'Guest' at local trunk show

Joanie Cox

JCOX@TRIBUNE.COM

Palm Beach-born debutante-turned-handbag designer Cornelia Guest has always had a passion for animal activism. The New York socialite will bring her cruelty-free line of fashionable satchels and totes to a trunk show Feb. 24 and 25 at Hunt Ltd. at the Winter Equestrian Festival at the Palm Beach International Equestrian Center. Shoppers will have a chance to meet Guest in person and talk about animal friends and fashion at this event, which will take place at the far side of the Grand Prix bridge.

From her vegan cookie and catering line to her clever handbag collection, which incorporates chic styles from sequined clutches to woven faux-leather bags, Guest, who was named by Donna Karan as one of the "Women Who Inspire," does just that with every project in which she's involved.

"I prefer to call them cruelty-free bags," Guest said in an interview last De-

