NIC ROLDAN

Nic Roldan is an 8-goal Argentine-born polo player who grew up in Wellington. In 1998, he became the youngest player in history to win the U.S. Open Polo Championship. He is currently the captain of the U.S. Polo team and has won tournaments on five continents at various goal levels. Off the field, Roldan is an ambassador for the Kids Cancer Foundation and Brooke USA. He is also interested in golf, tennis and design, highlighting his great hand-eye coordination and exceptional accuracy both on and off the field. Roldan will start 2017 playing in the 20-goal series on the Grand Champions Polo Club team at IPC.
