most, and April 30 was their 10th anniversary. Larry gave Marnye a new remodeled and expanded game room in the basement of their home in Glendale, CA. Marnye's present to Larry was equally bizarre; she surprised him in the main jumper ring at his spring Woodside show when a new Golden Gate Bridge jump showed up suddenly. OK, some people give jewelry, but as we said before, the Langers are different.

On another note, Larry Langer and Charlotte Skinner were greeted by six inches of snow for the start of their Colorado spring horse show. "We have held this show for the past 18 years on this date, and we have always missed the winter weather," said Larry. The start of the show was delayed a little, since it could be snowing one day, and eighty degrees the next in Colorado. They were fine, since the Coloradans are a hardy bunch. In California, everyone would just go the movies.

There is nothing like a ride on a horse to make you feel better! At least not for Carol Brown, a former whipper-in, carriage driver, and now owner of the Dog & Pony Show antique shop. Despite being on dialysis treatments, she was able to mount up for a long healthy walk in Walpole, New Hampshire after 6 long years out of the saddle.

On the move: Bon Voyage, Amy Brubaker, popular amateur rider and everyone's favorite catch rider from out west is off on a new adventure. We profiled Amy and her various successes in the hunter/eq rings last fall, and she checked in to tell us: "My husband, Scott, our baby girl, Beloved (Lhasa Apso) and I are moving to Hyderabad India for two years! I was offered a great opportunity with my firm, Deloitte Tax LLP and just couldn't turn it down. I will travel back several times a year and hope to coordinate my US visits with various horse shows, the first being Capital Challenge. While in India, I will be riding at the Hyderabad Polo and Riding Club learning cross-country and even polo"

Amy sends a huge thank you to all the people who have been so generous and kind to her over the years, and while she'll miss all her two and four legged friends in California, she looks forward to picking up where she left off in two years. We wish her good luck!

Adrienne Rowles & Richard Faver say that South Florida Equine Quarantine was selected by the United States Department of Agriculture to host the CEM (Contagious Equine Metritis) training program for state, federal, and Accredited veterinarians, held in Wellington in June.

Horse show news: The attention to detail and special appreciation that is shown to its exhibitors each year is what makes Showplace Productions one of the top horse show production and management companies in the United States. This year, the Rolex Open Rider Challenge has been added. Gruno's Diamonds of Rockford, IL, sponsors this new challenge, giving open jumper riders the possibility of winning three valuable Rolex watches throughout the season's competitions.

International Bromont will feature two top-level hunter/jumper competitions. The CSI  will be held from July 21-25, 2010, and the CSI is scheduled for July 28 - August 1, 2010.

Clinics and seminars: George Morris will return to the Buffalo Therapeutic Riding Center November 12-14, 2010, to host an educational seminar. The opportunity to partake in this remarkably educational event will be open to three groups (Intermediate, Advanced, Jumper) of eight riders, as well as audi-
